National School Lunch Week October 11th-14th

Recognizing the importance of a healthy school lunch in a child's life, and the impact it has inside and outside of the classroom.

Dear Silvercrest families.

The Silvercrest PTA - Health, Safety & Parent Education Committee will be providing each student with a healthy fruit or vegetable during their lunch time, throughout the week of October 11th - 14th. We will be spreading the message of appreciation for national school lunches, and we will be focusing on the importance of healthy fruits and vegetables.

The fruits and vegetables are provided free of charge to the students and are to encourage healthy eating habits.

The following is the schedule for the week: subject to change based on availability.

- Tuesday, October 11th-bananas
- Wednesday, October 12th- baby carrots
- Thursday, October 13th-sliced apples
- Friday, October 14th- grapes

We look forward to a week of fun, learning about the importance of fruits and veggies! Check out these awesome smoothie, snack and easy dinner recipes: https://www.weelclous.com/search Take a look at these healthy tips for kids: www.pcrm.org/good-nutrition/nutrition-for-kids

Please let your child's teacher know of any food allergies or if you wish for them not to receive any of the items above by sending in the form below. No action is necessary if you would like your child to participate.
